THE DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE

Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter of May 26 endorsing [redacted] for the position of Director of the Office of Foreign Missions. I was very glad you took the time to write.

As you have probably heard, the President has selected John Condayan to be the Director of the Office of Foreign Missions. John served ably as Jim Nolan's principal Deputy, and I know you will find him superbly qualified to take over as their Director.

I have taken the liberty of sending your letter to John and urging him to consider [redacted] for one of the Deputy positions in OFM. The fact that he is not in the Foreign Service and has intelligence community background makes him a worthy candidate, as the legislation creating the office provides.

Sincerely,

John C. Whitehead
